

Dear Reader,

Welcome to the holiday issue of Rolling Pin Cruise magazine. We at Celebrity Cruises are pleased to be part of one of the most informative publications in the cruise industry.

Many people choose a cruise vacation at this time of the year to nurture relationships with family members and special friends. As we reflect on what is most meaningful to us, it is important to focus on achieving a balance in life.

We strive to do this at Celebrity Cruises by creating “A True Departure” – a vacation that will enable our guests to become rejuvenated, enriched and connected. Rejuvenation comes from attentive service and pampered spa treatments as well as comfortable, relaxed surroundings. Enrichment comes from exceptional cuisine, lectures and cooking demonstrations, and fine art. Connections are made not only with everyone sharing the cruise experience but also with self.

The holidays present a perfect opportunity for every one of us to seek and discover our own personal, true departure. We are grateful to the dedicated staff and crew members at Celebrity Cruises who do their utmost throughout the year to help our guests achieve that balance in their lives. We all wish you a peaceful and happy holiday season.

Sincerely,
