

Charles A. Towsley, PPM
Port Director

Dear Rolling Pin Cruise Readers,

Congratulations are in order for Simon Worgotter, publisher and founder of Rolling Pin Cruise magazine. With this new publication, Mr. Worgotter is now able to shed light on our interesting and entertaining industry through articles and feature stories that are informative and enlightening and define the overall essence of the cruise industry.

The staff and port users at the Dante B. Fascell Port of Miami-Dade are encouraged by Rolling Pin Cruise magazine and are equally as excited about its weekly internet version. These two vehicles help highlight and promote the tourism industry, which has experienced rough waters for the past two years, but is now enjoying calmer seas.

As “The HomePort-of-Call” and “Cruise Capital of the World,” the Port of Miami sincerely welcomes the efforts of Rolling Pin Cruise magazine. and wishes the staff and founders continued success.

Charles A. Towsley, PPM
Port Director

